

The Church History Project – learning
Reflecting on Church Buildings 6

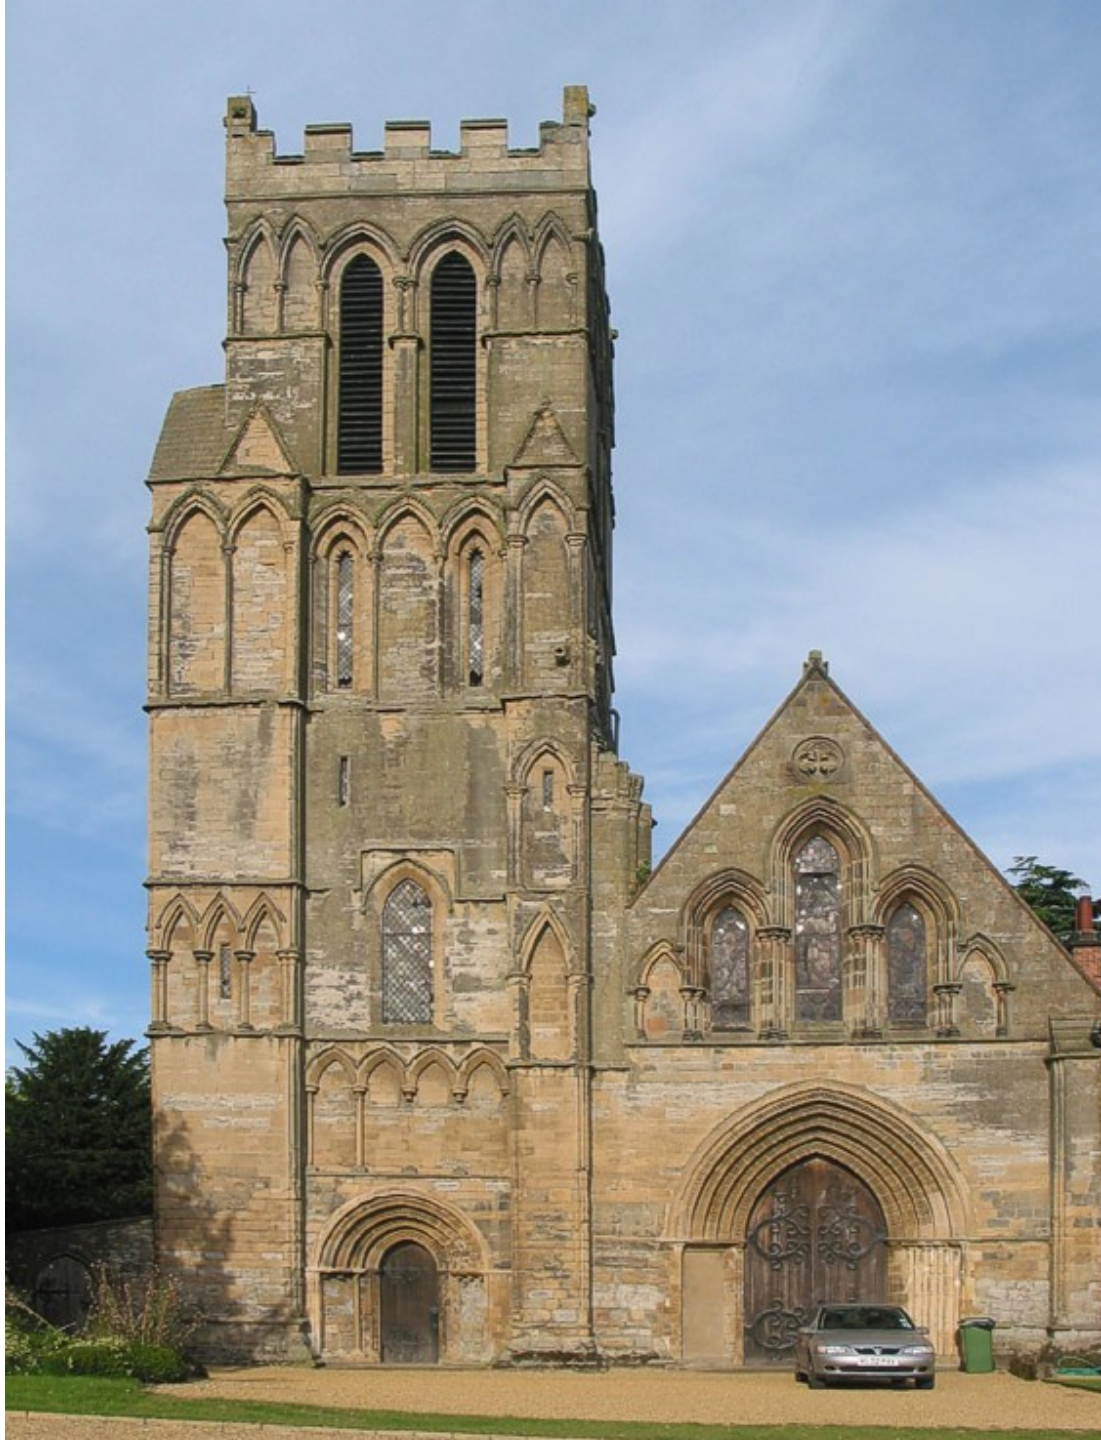

Reflecting on towers

for more of our materials see www.nottsopenchurches.org.uk

ST MARY'S CHURCH
Evesham, Warwickshire

St Mary's Church is a fine example of 14th-century Gothic architecture. The tower, which is the only part of the church that remains, is a masterpiece of masonry. It is decorated with intricate carvings and has a crenellated top. The tower is built of stone and is surrounded by a wall of rubble. The church is a Grade I listed building and is a Scheduled Ancient Monument.

The church was built between 1320 and 1360. It was designed by the architect William de Wyke. The tower is a square tower with a crenellated top. It is decorated with intricate carvings and has a crenellated top. The tower is built of stone and is surrounded by a wall of rubble. The church is a Grade I listed building and is a Scheduled Ancient Monument.

The church is a fine example of 14th-century Gothic architecture. The tower, which is the only part of the church that remains, is a masterpiece of masonry. It is decorated with intricate carvings and has a crenellated top. The tower is built of stone and is surrounded by a wall of rubble. The church is a Grade I listed building and is a Scheduled Ancient Monument.

